

The following exterior features of the Robert C. Gunther House and Carriage House, 1269 Kentucky St., are protected by City Ordinance No. 9023, approved September 21, 2004:

(A) House

- (1) Brick construction with a stone foundation.
- (2) Molded brick corners.
- (3) Basket weave brick pattern on frieze, projecting brick bands.
- (4) Molded brick panels - center of second story facade, upper portion of chimney.
- (5) Molded chimney - decorative slots and panel.
- (6) Flat segmented brick arch lintels.
- (7) Brick relieving arch lintels.
- (8) Double door entry with transom windows.
- (9) Large pane porch windows with transom windows.
- (10) Carved porch detail - pediment, west side.
- (11) Hip roof dormers - south and west - multi-pane windows.
- (12) Two story angular turret with hip roof.
- (13) Arch window with stained glass semicircle, brick relieving arch lintel.
- (14) Four-over-four sash windows.
- (15) One-over-one sash windows.
- (16) Shingled rear gable.
- (17) Square chimneys - north side, middle of house.

(B) Carriage House

- (1) Brick construction in common bond.
- (2) Small east first floor windows.
- (3) Second floor east triple windows and north window - one-over-one sashes.
- (4) East and north entrances, hay door.
- (5) Brick relieving arch lintels.