

The following exterior features of the Herman H. and Mary Wilke House, 900 Madison St., are protected by City Ordinance No. 9089, approved October 17, 2006:

(1) Brick Queen Anne cottage on rough-faced limestone foundation with tooled capstones.

(2) Full-width Neoclassical front porch with twin gables (pediments), including eight columns with composite capitals, brick piers capped with limestone, balustrade, decorative reliefs in gable (pediment) typanums, and finished beaded board ceiling.

(3) Wood double-hung windows with segmented arches and limestone sills.

(4) Enclosed back porch, including finished beaded board ceiling.

(5) Built-in gutters.