

The following exterior features of the Charles Henry Bull House and Carriage House, 1651 Maine St., are protected by City Ordinance No. 8412, approved December 27, 1989:

A pair of arched windows centered on second floor, and all other doors and windows. A pair of brackets with built-in gutters on main Forty (40) feet by Forty feet section, and single brackets on second section. The original front porch roof and columns. The original east porch roof and columns. The original chimneys and original tin roof, except for one shingled Section. All of the original cherry woodwork and stained glass. The Carriage House.