

The following exterior features of the James and Sarah Margaret Bradshaw House, 819 North Fifth Street, are among those protected by City Ordinance No. 8479 approved March 5, 1991:

1. Front facade;
2. Main entrance, overhang, roof, and brackets with carvings;
3. Front and side porches with porch rails, floors and steps, plus porch paneling (reproduction);
4. First floor rectangular windows and doors, with their shark-toothed limestone hoods with central carvings;
5. Cornice bracketing;
6. The gabled ends of all second-story dormers with centralized rosettes;
7. The four attic dormers, which are differently decorated with wooden stick-style gabled end camouflaging the typical shark-toothed head and rosette behind;
8. South side bay window;
9. Quincy Preservation Commission gives permission that the flared-top front chimney (now removed) may be restored to its original design;
10. Three rear chimneys;
11. Stone foundation surrounding the house; and
12. Exterior brick surface of the house.
