

The following exterior features of the house contributing to the Brewery Area Local Historic District at 415 South 10th Street (original owner unknown), are among those protected by City Ordinance No. 9092 approved October 31, 2006:

1. One-and-a-half-story Craftsman bungalow
2. Decorative knee braces under eaves
3. Tan variegated brick walls on rough-faced limestone foundation
4. Full-width front porch with coursed stone piers, wood columns, and decorative knee braces.
5. Square-spindled porch balustrade
6. Wood shingles gables
7. Wood frame windows with decorative divisions located in the gables, the west façade, and the south façade.
8. Stone sills and chimney caps.